“ I was lucky enough to know Anna for a short time - She was an amazing woman ! She lit up the room with her presence. She shared some of her life with me through her stories which I could listen to for hours. There was just something about her. My thoughts and prayers are with her son Dave and all the family . I am just glad I got to meet her

“ Auntie Anne you will be missed, now you and Uncle Harold are together again!
I will always remember my times with you at Belle Isle (ice skating and swimming with David, Mary Lou and Leeanna), the times you had me over to your house to spend the night and our trips to the Eastland mall.
Those memories will always stay with me forever!
Love you always,
Diana
