

Anne Shirley Weldon

December 23, 1937 - March 21, 2025

Anne Shirley (Wilson) Weldon, peacefully passed away on Friday, March 21st at the age of 87. She was born in Detroit, Michigan on December 23, 1937, to George and Isabella Wilson. She grew up with her brother, Ron Wilson, where they were inseparable up until his passing in 2019.

In 1960, Shirley married the love of her life, James “Don” Weldon and went on to have three children, Lynette (Dennis) Bodenbach; Bradley (Lorelei) Weldon; James (Heather) Weldon. She loved watching her daughter dance and her sons play sports. Once her children had married, she spent the next part of her life being actively involved in her grandchildren’s lives. Shayne Bodenbach, Alysson (Kylie) Kuhns, and Trevor Weldon will always remember their grandma as someone who never missed a game, a dance recital or a bowling tournament.

Shirley also leaves behind three great-grandchildren (Skylar, Landyn and Parker Kuhns) who all lovingly called her Granny Mae, a nickname given to her by her granddaughter. She loved visiting them and hearing about their days. They were truly a bright spot towards the end of her life.

When she wasn’t spending time with her family, you could catch her at the casino, bingo hall or bowling alley. She never turned down a game of Euchre and would be the first to let you know the score, especially because she rarely lost. Shirley always had a Diet Coke in her hands and could never pass up a bowl of sea salt caramel ice cream.

Shirley will always be remembered as someone who never missed a birthday, was always first to say “hello,” and made sure everyone in the room felt loved.

She was preceded in death by her parents, husband and brother. To honor the beautiful life she had and has given us, the family will host a celebration of life at a later date.
