“ To the Ezyk Family,

We are so sad for your loss! Mrs. Ezyk was our neighbor in Eastpointe and very dear to our entire family. My sister Carol Lawson has been lifelong friends with Lori and considers Mrs. Ezyk and the family her second family. My mother, Mary Solky, treasured her friendship with Bridget and will miss her.

We will always remember Mrs. Ezyk with fondness and as a source of inspiration. She was bright, thoughtful, kind, and quick witted. She faced adversity with determination and tremendous grace. Her faith and family were central to her life and gave her so much joy.

We pray that you have the “...peace of God, which surpasses passes all understanding...” (Philippians 4:7)

*With love,
Mary Solky, and Mary Clare, Paul, and Miranda Stano*

“ To the Family of Bridget

Bridget was the past president of the Rambling Roses and I took the minuets for her.

She was fun to work for and always had a smile on her face. She was always concerned about the ladies in the rambling roses in regards to their health and home life. She will be missed dearly by all who loved her and may she find happiness and peace with the good lord. God Bless Bridget

“ Dear Karen & Family,

So sorry for your loss. The memory of your Mom will always share a special place in your heart. Such a sweet lady. Unable to be there for you, currently in FL.

God Bless!
