“ My senior year of high school in 1985 I worked at Cass Auto Parts for Dan as a delivery driver and a stock boy. Dan was always a great boss. He was always someone I admired. He had a great personality and I couldn't help but just respect the man. He just really seemed to have it going on: a beautiful wife and great kids, beautiful house, nice cars --- the kind of stuff that me, as a 17-year old kid, hoped that I would have some day. I'm 55 years old right now, and I'm looking at his date of birth and realizing that he was only 39 years old during that time. Wow how time flies. What a great guy he was back then, and continued to be for his entire life. I hope his family finds peace in knowing that he is in heaven, and heaven is a beautiful place. Bobby Hugo

“ I first met Dan Soenen at a bar I was working at in Mount Clemens which is the Recbowl .. He loved his patty melt or blt sandwiches .. Dan was a very friendly customer and turned out to be a very good friend.. Dan use to come in with his wife Diane and they use to tell me many many great stories of their travels together.. I enjoyed his company very much.. I have stopped by Dan and Diane's house many times and Dan would always be in his garage wood shop area tinkering away at many different things.... One time me and Diane were walking on their property and Dan was cutting down a big pine tree at the end of their property and a big branch came down and just missed me and Diane we talked about that story many different times and laughed about it .. thank goodness it did not turn into a disaster.. Dan will be missed very much rest in peace Dan..

“ I have been a friend of Dan's since 1965. I worked at Cass auto parts in 1968. Dan and I we're pretty close back then. Then the military took Dan, then they took me. Over the years we would bump into each other here and there. My. Clemens car shows was popular. In more recent years we would talk old times and drink beer on the swing in the back yard. I'm going to miss that: he also helped me with my veteran benefits. I thank him for that. He and Diane often spoke of their family. Wish I had gotten to know them better. God bless you Dan and hoping your family will heal. That may be tough as I know you were deeply loved. Your long time buddy Scott Lemanski

Dan was my cousin. A gentle man. He didn't talk just to be saying something, he talked when he had something to say. Sweet man missing him already.
