“ The last time I saw Dave was when I rented a movie theater during Covid for a private showing. He came with Rebecca to enjoy an evening out. I could hardly keep up walking with him with his new tall walker. He had that beautiful smile on his face that I never saw him without!

He was a good father, a good husband and a good man. May your family always remember the good times they shared with you.

“ Remembering the days long long ago of all the families and cousins gathered for the Holidays. The tradition of going to each other’s homes is cherished. Maybe as one of the youngest cousins I feel like the tradition ended too soon. Say hello to the gang that is gathered awaiting your arrive. May the next gathering be long in coming.
