Wasik Funeral Home, Inc. - January 25, 2022 at 03:59 PM

“ The past two months have been a full of emotional highs and lows. Deb received all your thoughts and prayers. It has been difficult for the kids, Penny and I to watch her go through this journey. Unfortunately her life here on earth is cut short. I want to thank you all for the support wether it was by cards, flowers, or kind words. I can't express enough my thanks for everyone who supported my family in this very stressful time. Deb's love for all of you was very present this week. Thank you from the deepest part of my heart. We will see each other again in heaven. The Strobel family

“ I've known Deb since 7th grade. We were part of a larger group that were buddies all the way through senior year in high school. Lost touch over the years but never stopped being friends. She was kind, warm, sassy, and loyal to a fault. Heaven gained a true angel. I'll never forget you Deb!!!

Fall Fantasia - October 19, 2020 at 12:00 AM

“In life, we lucky to find a true lifelong friend. Deb was just that. We met in elementary school and had been inseparable throughout graduation. Although we grew older and went on with our lives, we could always get together as though we had just seen each other. Family gatherings and social media still kept us close over the years, and I am so blessed we were able to see her Friday. She will be sorely missed. Scott Tedrow
