“ JoAnn was a loving, funny and faithful friend since our childhood. I have so many wonderful memories of she, Diann, Sue, I and others at church, at each other's homes, church youth gatherings and picnics. While we didn't see each other as much as adults, she was always faithful to keep in touch. My heart is broken, but she had seen difficult days and by the grace of our Lord, with whom she is now, she is healthy, happy and more alive than ever and we will meet again in Heaven. My sincere sympathy and prayers for comfort for all her family and dear friends.

JoAnn was such a delightful fun person to know, since our younger years. My heart hurts she is gone, although wishing I could have been there one last time. Our Lord has made a place for her, taking away all her pain. God bless and prayers for her family during this difficult time.
