“ My deepest sympathy to the family. Ed and I have known each other the past several years. When I first met him i asked what he needed and he replied "Five bucks and a cup of coffee." So that was what I took him every time I visited. I still have a five set aside in my wallet "for Ed". Ed was a polite man who enjoyed bringing a smile to everyone's face. Last time we were in the courtroom, his parting words to the Judge were, "Have a good day Judge, and don't work too hard." She smiled. Rest in Peace, Ed
