“ Dear Eric, You have been a very special person to Jeff, Rochelle, Pierce and I. I still remember the first time I met you and Patty Brain Brent and Kara, and that was the TRW picnic over 20 years ago! Since that moment we all became fast friends. Shared so many, many happy times. You will always be in our hearts. Jeff and I will watch over Sue and the kids. You were an amazing selfless person. I know we will see you again, one day. We will laugh and dance. Until then...Peace

Dear Cetnar family: My daughter received your husbands kidney. Her name is Kelly Mittelbrun. You will never know how grateful we are to receive this gift of life. I too was the receiptent of a kidney. It is like being reborn again. Thank you from the bottom of my heart for your gift to my daughter.

“ Dear Cetnar Family, Praying for comfort. Praying for peace. Praying that our heavenly father will carry you through this time of sadness. My memories of Eric go way back to high school. I would visit the Cetnar home often and there was always Eric as long as I can remember smiling. I understand Ann what it is like to lose a brother. Losing my own brother 4 years ago, I feel your sadness. We will continue to lift you in prayer. Sincerely, Shawn and Mo McDonough

“ Once in a lifetime a star crosses the heavens and shines just a little brighter than all the rest. As this star soared into the heavens it radiated a gentle generous special kind of love. Our loving star was Eric.

God stepped in front to catch you when He asked you to come home. He wrapped his arms around you, so you wouldn't be alone.

Our hearts will always be sadder and our nights a little darker without our shining star. We love you Gentle Eric.

“ Dear family,
I was not personally acquainted with your dear husband, father, and friend. But I was saddened to read of his untimely passing at such a young age. I wanted to share a thought from the bible that gave me a measure of comfort when I lost my brother. It's found at John 5:28,29. I wish you all the best.

“ Eric, It was always nice to see you at the family gatherings, It was always nice to see you at the wrestling tournaments, I will miss your kindness and compassion that you always had no matter what was going on in your life. The greatest gift a parent can give their child is the gift of knowing the Lord. Your parents gave this to you and you gave it to all. God is Love and you were love and I am so sad , my tears won't stop. I love you and you will always be in my heart, and I thank God for the time I had with you.

“ We are deeply, deeply saddened by the loss of Eric. He was the best! A strong, happy, loving, GOOD man has been lost. His smile and shyness will be missed. His love for his wife Sue and his children was evident every moment I had the priviledge to spend with Eric. Had he been given a longer time to fight the fight he faced, he would have prevailed. Eric, the world will never be the same without you here. You are gone too soon.

“ A beautiful nephew. He was the happiest person. Always smiling always positive and just the nicest person I know. I loved having him stay at our home. Uncle Ray thought you were like a third son. We really loved having you spend time with us in French River and with us at our home. You will be missed very much by so very many people. You have helped another family have so much happiness through your wonderful gift. Say hi to everybody up there, tell them we miss them all. Love you so much!!

“Our deepest condolences to Eric's family. Though we didn't know Eric we look at this photo of him and that smile and those eyes speak volumes. He is LOVE. To his wife and children especially words cannot describe what he means to our family. We are eternally grateful for his "gift of life" to our niece, Kelly, who received Eric's kidney on Saturday. This is a truly amazing story with God's handprint all over it. Eric lives on; his energy is felt. What greater gift can anyone possibly give. We mourn your loss and grieve with all of you. We thought of Eric and his family during our moments of waiting and were overwhelmed with their generosity and goodness. We celebrate his life and all that it means to the people who knew him best and to those who didn't know him. May God bless all of you and may Eric rest in peace forever in the light of the Lord.

With sincere sympathy,

“Eric was one of a kind.....he was the best neighbor and friend you can ask for. We are going to miss everyday walking out our front door and seeing his big comforting smile. I have learned so much from Eric, he is truly and inspiration and I am just soo thankful that I got a chance to spend a little more time with him and his family within the last couple years. Eric you will be truly missed. Rest in Peace,

“No one will ever be able to express the loss we all feel over losing Eric! Eric was always there with that great smile and chuckle, ready to add to our fun. Our family will never forget the Danny O'Day puppet shows with my brother, David; the blueberry bush stomping in French River, Canada; our trip to California to cheer my brother on at NCAA's; or the poses he and my brother were famous for! Most of all, I will cherish our conversations, as adults, regarding our families and how our children are so important. Eric just spoke about this at our cousins funeral; he wanted to stay healthy for his children and set a good example for them to follow. Eric did everything with his children in mind; what a great role model for all of us. Eric we LOVE you, breathe easy!

“ I truly do not know what to say! When Kim called me yesterday and told me the terrible news my mind went back to all of the memories on Barbara of all of us as kids and "Sir Eric" - swimming together running around being kids while the parents played cards, the "shows in the garage", all the memories that bonded us as kids! We were quite a group! Karl, Kim, Chucky, Ann Marie.....and of course little Eric! Even though we haven't been together in forever - Please know my love is with all of you ALWAYS! My arms are around all of you! Give yioir mom & dad hugs and kisses from me! I will be there in spirit even though I can't be there in person! I love you all and I am sure Sir Eric has been welcomed in Heaven by all of those who have left us too soon! Michele

“Eric, I am still in disbelief and frozen over losing our Special Eric so quickly. I will forever embrace the special memories and shelter them in my heart. The childhood memories were the best; the family trip in the mega RVs, the feasts, the “productions” in Nana’s basement and all of the other exciting occasions we shared. Most of all I will remember the sincere love you emitted solely with your presence. Despite the setbacks you had in what we call life, you remained cheerful and persevered. Your smile and laughs were uplifting to everyone around. You were such a significant part of our family. You were an unsurpassed father to your intelligent and beautiful children, an authentic family man with outstanding morals and judgment. I remember, with no avail, evaluating my single friends to determine if anyone was acceptable for you. In the end, you didn’t need my help, you found your true sole-mate on your own.
Eric, I love you and will miss you deeply!

“Eric, my best friend, my soul brother. You are going to be missed by everyone who was fortunate enough to know you. You have been a part of my life for as long as I can remember. Elementary school mates, softball team mates, racket ball league members, bowling team mates, brother-in-law, Godfather to my daughter Erica, golf partner, best friend. We had many adventures together: white water rafting, skiing in Colorado, driving to Florida in your Dad's brand new van (which was never the same after that trip), countless weekends up at the cottage, bar hopping on Mackinaw Island, too many to list. So many more we could of had. I'm really going to miss you. I love you man.

The loss of one so very loved leaves us saddened and lost for words. Our deepest and sincerest condolences to Eric's family. Chuck and Marge, we know your pain with the loss of Eric. We learned of his death from the newspaper obituary when we returned from celebrating our 25th wedding anniversary...we will be at Mass on Wednesday to celebrate his life with you and his family. We know through the tributes above how very much Eric was loved. His reward has just begun. Memories created with him will never die...his gift to all who loved him so deeply. May those memories comfort you today, tomorrow, and every day after.
