Gary was always a happy friendly guy, always fun to hang out with in high school.

I am so sorry and sad to hear of Gary's passing. I have so many wonderful and fun memories of Gary, starting in high school, when he was dating my cousin, Michele, to their wedding, birth of sweet Adam, and Stephen, and being the godfather to my son. He always had a the great smile and laugh. He was one of the best! Keeping him, Stephen and all is family in my prayers. May God help you all to heal through special memories and the love Gary had for you all.

RIP Gary, you will be missed.

“ I had alot of good conversations with Gary. I loved talking sports and music with him. And when we talked of other things he always spoke very highly of his family. I'll miss running into him around town and talking about the pitiful sports teams detroit puts out for us time and time again. Thanks for the memories Gary. You will be missed my old friend.
