“ To the family members of Jim, I will miss his voice, telephone calls, coffee drinking and his dream of success. We bonded very deeply in his last 10 years. May the Lord be merciful to my young friend. Rest in peace my dear friend.

Jim was a long time friend since I met him in 1986. We have kept in touch through monthly luncheons with our mutual friend Ed Powers. I will miss Jim very much and hope is at peace after battling his health for so many years. Goodbye Amigo. Bob Centeck

*“ We want to express our most sincere sympathy to Jim's entire family...his children, grandchildren, siblings, nieces, and nephews. Jim was always a visionary who dreamed of a future where technology would better all of our lives. May he rest in eternal peace in the arms of our Lord. God bless you all.
