“ Mr. & Mrs. Hislop set a very special time up after work each day that I will never forget. They would snuggle together before dinner looking out over the lake to take time to show their love and support for each other. As a childhood friend of Lisa's, I could see them right off the kitchen while Lisa would set the dinner table. To this day, thinking of those special moments they shared is a testament of two people truly in love.

Dear Ma Hislop, Vickie, Karen, Jimmy, Lisa and Janet,

You are all like "family" to me in so many ways. My deepest condolences. My heart aches for all of you..., and also because I will miss the man I lovingly referred to as "Pa Hislop". A special man with a big and tender heart for each of his family members. A man, gentle in spirit, yet huge in integrity. "The souls of the just are in the hands of God..., they shall be greatly blessed because God tried them and found them worth of himself as gold in the furnace" (Wisdom 3:1 ++). May he rest in the peace of Christ. Love you all. Kathy M.
