Jenny Marie Eisbrenner, beloved wife and sister, passed away peacefully at her home on November 26, 2022 at age 49 with her husband Ken at her side. She was the cherished daughter of W. Raymond and the late Mary Josephine (Card) McInerney. Jenny was born on September 26, 1973 in Saginaw, Michigan. She married the love of her life, Kenneth Eisbrenner, on March 21, 2015, and he survives her.

After several years in the insurance world, Jenny decided to launch her own Virtual Assistant Business--JenAssist. Jenny was also a member of many business networking groups as well as charity organizations.

She enjoyed the several family vacations on Lake Clam that her family had taken for over forty years of her life, as well as the camping trips that her and her husband Ken would take. Jenny was a lover of all things Winnie the Pooh and her pet cats.

Like her mother, Jenny lived her life by always finding the beauty in everything and everyone surrounding her. She greeted everyone with a hug and smile. Jenny touched many lives not only in her everyday life, but also in the various business networking groups she belonged to. She will be dearly missed by every life she touched.

Jenny is survived by her loving husband Ken, as well as her father W. Raymond McInerney and his partner Sharon Klonowski. She is also survived by her brother Jeffrey A. McInerney and his partner Rachel Woodard. Adored sister-in-law to Curtis Eisbrenner, and Mike (Cheryl) Eisbrenner. Dearest niece to William (Pat) Card, Elaine (Mike) Churchill, Steven (Mary) Card, Christopher (Geri) Card, Paul (Marian) Card, Martha (Ken) Kramer, Margaret (Dave) Kenel, Terry McInerney, and Brian (Audrey) McInerney. Jenny will be dearly missed by not only her family, but a multitude of friends and acquaintances.

“ Jenny was the sweetest person, always smiling and had a great laugh. I will always remember her sweet nature. We went to the same grade school, high school and college so I have memories from several stages of growing. Much love to her family. -Carrie Trogan

“ Jenny was one of my favorite people in college, I could not have imagined my time there without her. Her smile, love of Winnie the Pooh, and everything else made her such an extraordinary person. RIP Jenny, you will be missed. Your homegirl, Jennifer Phillips-Jones (Phillips)
