“ My condolences to Billy's entire family. Unfortunately I haven't seen him since the old days at Roseville. The attached picture is how I remember him. He was a great guy back then and I'm positive he remained so for the rest of his way too short life. Prayers and thoughts go out to you all.

“ JT, JT, JT..... I am so very sorry to hear this. Although I never knew you outside of work, you changed my life by hiring this little girl in to the tanker company Polar Environmental. I still remember the interview, you sat there smirking your classic smirk the whole way through, at a little girl's sincere eagerness to drive and operate a big nasty waste oil taker just like the guys. I think you hired me as a joke, but the joke was on you because I loved the job and stayed over a year until I broke my foot. Your smirk was never mean, but always warm and friendly. You made Polar a great place to work. I remember how you used to jump in Tommy P's lap and crack everyone up. So many good memories there! The time we had a safety meeting and at the end you asked everyone to carry one of a stack of boxes to another part of the shop but not me, only the guys.... and I got so mad and threatened to quit for discrimination because I could carry a box just as well as the guys.... you were just being nice and tracked me down and said I can't quit over that. AND THE TIME we did a job together and you were driving the truck like a mad-man! OMG I still can't believe you didn't hit anyone that day, you were driving so crazy in that rush hour traffic! You made Polar a great place to work, of course along with the other guys too, but man, you were my favorite Polar person (excepting my trainer Eric Betea) because of your warm and friendly and prankster personality. And last but not least, as another one of your jokes you got me and Dave to go out, because we were both grumpy and anti-social. Again the joke backfired and Dave became the love of my life. The morning after we went out you were waiting for me to clock in and ask how it went, expecting a disaster. You asked what we did and I said, "Well I'm a woman and he's a man, what do you -think- we did??" And I'll never forget the look on your face!! I finally got to crack you up for a change. Again it worked out though, as I still love Dave. Thanks for everything, JT. You were a shining light in this often-dim world. I hope someday I can shake your hand again. God Bless You, my friend.

“ I've known you most of my life. Since I was 16 to be exact. We've pretty much been through it all. Good and bad. You've given me my 4 amazing children which I'll be forever grateful for. And now our 2 beautiful gransons. You'll always hold a special place in my heart. Please help me get through this. Watch over all of us like you always did. Rest In Paradise
