“ Larry always had a smile and a real zest for life. I am very saddened to read about his passing. Prayers to his family, and God bless you Larry. From an old friend in Great Bridge.

I am a Virginia, Great Bridge homie that met Larry during the '90's at a Chesapeake, Va gym. Larry was a high spirited, fun guy, to say the least, who for whatever reason, really let liked me, despite my introverted personality. We even became hanging buddies, frequenting Va Beach clubs. Circumstances eventually caused Larry to re-locate to Michigan and we lost touch with each other. For whatever reason, curiosity caused me to Google his name a few days ago and I was shocked to find that he passed away. RIP good Buddy... 😭

My Older Brother Larry Jr wasn't just my Best Friend ,He was also very Helpful, Generous to me and many people who were in the Gym and had no experience in Strength Training or Bodybuilding ,If he knew that you were genuinely motivated to better yourself, He'd give advice on Diet, workout tips & Routines,He helped many people reach their goals in their lives & in his own time for free, I hope that more people realize that, I Miss you Brotha

“ Larry was a super nice guy who loved to talk about sports. Sometimes he would come and stand next to the treadmill and visit. He was very passionate about re connecting with his son, Dylan. I'll always remember him happy at the gym, often eating pineapple. We will miss Larry.
