Mark was a true friend to me and we were there for each other when tough times came. I'll never forget our Alaska trip ...). Mark was like an older brother to me, He had an impact on my life, I will miss being able to call him and catch up on things.. I know that the heavens got a good one .. good bye my friend

“ My name for Mark was always "BooBoo", and he always called my "his Daro". Mark, you and I since we first met a good 45 years ago instantly had a very special bond, a bond that no one could break or ever come between. We told each other everything, and all of our special talks will stay in my heart forever. I will definitely miss our weekly calls, you'd call at 8:00 pm, knowing I was in bed, but not sleeping yet, and we'd talk about each others day, what's going on in our lives, and how much we missed and loved each other, and before we knew it, we'd been on the phone for a good 2 hours. I'm so glad we talked last week, and thank you "BooBoo" for what you said to me about my health. I'll miss our weekly calls, that's for damn sure. I'm sure you and Butch will have a shot of Shlevo, and give each other hugs. You two better behave! "BooBoo" until I see you, you'll remain in my heart and soul. Love you honey, Daro
