That was a great New Years Eve!!!! Remember because of Y2K everyone was freaking out, so they (Mark, Scott, James, and Ryan)pranked us all and cut the power at the stroke of midnight and everyone went, "oh ..." for a second until we looked outside and everyone else has power. What a great night!! Somewhere I have more pictures from that night :)

“ Deepest condolences Janene, Michelle, Mike, and Nicole on the loss of your dear brother. While I have not seen Mark in many years, I will always remember his genuine smile and his fun and inclusive nature as a young person. He was never too big to play with us little kids on the block when everyone met in the street for some kind of game. He used to call me Sam, and I remember him fondly. God bless all who love Mark and are grieving this heartbreaking loss. You're in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Although we had lost touch over the years, Kelly and I considered Mark to be a good friend. Kelly and I might not have ever met if it weren't for Mal. Thanks for crashing your car on Tigers' opening day, buddy! We will forever regret not getting together with Mal and his partner here in Chicago to go over the glory days. Rest well, our friend.

“ I always looked forward to seeing Mark at family events and always enjoyed our conversations every single time. I'm in shock and still can't believe he's gone. However, he truly is in a better place and now will be the family's guardian angel. We will miss you Mark!

“ Every time I heard my uncle Mark was coming into town, I would be so excited because I knew he would have a funny story to tell or something cool to show everyone. He was a warm and loving spirit and everyone knew it. I'm so sad to see him go, he was such a hard worker but I'm glad he is with my grandma now! The memories of going to the zoo, museums and making great tasting smoothies will always be in my heart forever! I know I will see you again but until then rest peacefully.

Love you always, Julia!

“ Words can not express the grief and devastation that our family is going through. The support and love that everyone has expressed to my family will be cherished forever. A dear friend told me years ago that "Mark is an Angel that walks this planet". How true that was. To be lucky enough to have a brother that was so kind, generous, funny was an honor. He will be forever in my heart. Mark you got to mom first so make sure she is cooking all our favorites especially your chocolate chip cookies.

*Until I see you again my sweet sweet brother.
My love always,

“ I've known Mark a good 20+ years, almost as long as he and Johnnie Grozenski (my brother) have been friends. He was like a brother to me. Things I most admire about Mark: he always had a smile, heavy on wit with a savvy sense of humor, charm that went way beyond charming, a true gentleman and the best kind of friend anyone could EVER hope to have. I feel honored and blessed to have had him in my life and part of our family. My sincere condolences to the Malczewski Family and the entire Mark Mal fan Club.

*My fondest funniest moment of Mark... the year was 1995 and the movie Tommy Boy had just come out which we all loved and saw numerous times. Mark was at Johnnie's house and while heading out, he inadvertently grabbed and attempted to put on Johnnie's coat (which was just a wee bit small on him) and he did the funniest impersonation of Chris Farly's "fat mat in a little coat" scene from the movie. Hysterical. He simply, just, had a way about him - gotta love a man who can laugh at himself while making everyone else laugh. You will forever be in my heart Mark Mal! I love you.

“ Our deepest sympathy goes out to the dear Malczewski family especially our sister-in-law Michelle and brother Sam and Julia & Jessica. Words cannot express the emptiness we feel for our loving, caring and kind Mark. You will be greatly missed. Though it's time for God and our never-forgotten Marna to cradle him in their arms and give him peace, love and laughter that they have longed for. Having faith in knowing this, we pray will give you some comfort in your days of sorrow.

Mark was a gift to all who knew him. May his soul rest in peace.
