“ My heartfelt sympathy to Beverly and family. May God bless you with peace and comfort. Mike was such a kind and compassionate man. Not only was he my union brother, he was my mentor in his knowledge of coin collecting! I enjoyed listening to him talk about history, he was a walking encyclopedia. He shared his love of animals and his volunteer work. I'll miss seeing him everyday! Rest in peace, my good friend!

“ *My Deepest Sympathies to Bev & Family,
I only knew Mike for about 5 years but I quickly saw that he was a very honest and caring man. He always had a good thing to say about everybody and was quick to smile and begin a conversation with everyone. He served the Madison Heights Coin Club (formally known as the UAW Coin Club in Madison Heights) for nearly 30 years. Most of those years were as the President and he completed the legal transition for the club to be renamed the Madison Heights Coin Club in a very professional manner.*

As the President of the Royal Oak Coin Club, Mike was my Vice President and was always very helpful to me and the club, because of my health issues. He was a tireless worker at our coin club shows and always a contributor at our meetings.

So, Mike even though we only walked the earth together for less than 5 years, I am truly blessed to have known you. May you rest in peace until we all meet again.

“Mike was a neighbor, of mine, living with his mom & dad, in East Detroit, until he married. He was friendly to everyone. Always interested in every detail, and helpful, like neighbors of "the old school". Even after he married and moved to Warren, he would stop for a visit, with old friends, in the neighborhood. There was a closeness of friendship.

I chose Michael, as one of my dad's pallbearers, in 1990. I will never forget that.

Rest in Peace, Michael. You were taken, too soon. Love to your family.

“ Mike I lift my glass to you and toast a very giving and loving man. My memories of you will last a lifetime from your comic laughter to your answers to the world's problems.. You loved your politics and had a very short fuse for those who took advantage of people and animals alike... You will be missed little buddy but will not be forgotten... I assure you your gossip queen will keep your memories a live.... R.I.P. Mike

“I only met Mike Matlas once at my mom's 90th birthday party but Mike was a very nice man. He would go from his home out of his way to go get my mother Ruth Norkus in Shelby Twp. just so she could go to the coin club meetings each month. She really appreciated that gesture. I know she'll miss him and his kindness to her. Thank you Mike!

“ Dear Bev,
I am so sad to hear about Miike. He was my good buddy when we both worked, delivering the newspapers for P.C.F. Do you remember how he used to sneak Perogies from your Christmas stash and you would have to make more batches? He was so proud of your cooking and I loved them. Mike was also so wonderful to my nephew Danny, helping him with his interest in coins and getting Danny started with his collection. May you find comfort in your memories. God Bless.

“ Dear Beverly and family:

My heart is heavy with sympathy from the untimely passing of Mike. We already feel the void here at Solidarity House and Mike will be truly missed. Mike was a proud union member of OPEIU Local 494 for 35 years and we hold many fond memories of him in our hearts. May you and your family find peace, courage and comfort as you face the days ahead.

*Dear Beverly,
Just 4 years ago I expressed here sympathies after the death of Aunt Helen.
I didn't expect that so fast I would be back here to write about Michael...
Our deepest sympathy to You and family.
But our Savior is our hope and our destiny and it is the fact.
Let Him makes You strong.
Michael was a good man and deserved eternal happiness.*
