“ This may sound strange but in my late grandmothers (Mary (Beaver) Squires) family photos I came across a very old photo of "Norma Cooke" 1929. A very beautiful Lady in her about early 20's.
My name is Sean Squires
727-667-3188
Not sure exactly why I'm writing this
Just trying to see where this goes & if Possibly this relic is of more significance to someone else, than it is to me.
If anyone reads this and can contact me or pass my contact info on to whomever was related to Norma Cooke in this obituary I would greatly appreciate your efforts.

She was a wonderful lady.

“ Just a little bit of Norma: blue eyes, red hair, love of family and friends, the beach, living in Florida, cruising with Richard, the colors lavender, green and aquamarine. Jewelry bobbles, pretty clothes, reading, an eye for decor, smiles, love of life and cold duck. That's what I'll remember.
Until we met again.##imported-begin##Katie##imported-end##

“ We will miss Normas' beautiful smile and the love she showed for her family and friends. We enjoyed hearing her "opinions" on life events and always felt better after talking to her. Her courage and strength was inspirational. Her positive energy will live on in the family and friends that she appreciated and enjoyed so much. We were so blessed to have known her.##imported-begin##Kathy & Ron Raymond##imported-end##
