“ Since I have known Pat Ziemba he has always been such a dear man never causing any trouble to anyone but being helpful. He had the cutest sense of humor everyone in the family respected him for the man he was and for his character and integrity. He struggled immensely with a longterm illness and had the greatest attitude with his loving wife Janice at his side caretaking him for years. He had such an endearing peaceful quality to himself and was very intelligent teaching classes at his local college. the entire Mooney and Ziemba family are going to miss him very much. With our Heartfelt & Deepest Sympathy. Jean Mooney
