“ Dear Greschuk family.....I am so very sorry for your loss....since my Mom (Lorraine Williams) was a first cousin to Eugene, Bobby and Larry, I remember fun times as a young kid partying at Aunt Jenny and Uncle Pete's. Always music, dancing and Penny Ante Poker....Cousin Bobby will be missed....a sweet kind man with a great smile. You are all in my prayers....sending love from Delaware, Roberta 😞

“ Robert I miss you and have thought of you everyday. In the short time I was given the Honor to care for you and you in return gave me joy and showed me your wonderful heart, home and family. I am so grateful to have had this time with you even though I wish it was more, I pray you are dancing in paradise with your other half. Thank you and god bless your family .~ Care Giver" Comfort Care ~ Noel Vermander 🙏🥰❤️

“ Our deepest condolences to Bob’s family.
May The Lord give you the Grace you need during this difficult time 🙏🙏

Bob was such a special, kind and caring neighbor which is a rare find these days.

Nino and I really enjoyed his company and the fact that he was able to tell you exactly what he thought, hence we shared many, many laughs together.

He took comfort in the fact that I was a nurse and would often call or have me stop by if he had any questions or concerns.

I would never hesitate for a moment because he was that one of a kind Neighbor.

Nino and I will truly miss his laugh and smiling face.

He will be greatly missed!

May you all take comfort in knowing he is at his eternal resting place with those who have gone before him.

“ Bob was a real gentleman, a great neighbor and was always pleasant. My best memory of him is sitting in the garage with his grandson enjoying a cold one during the summer months. He really enjoyed that. Donna and Kevin Davis
