

Troy R. McMaster

August 21, 1966 - August 22, 2026

Troy R. McMaster, a beloved resident of Chesterfield Township, MI, passed away peacefully on Saturday, August 22, 2026, at the age of 60, at Henry Ford Hospital in Clinton Township. Born on August 21, 1966, in Pontiac, Michigan, Troy was a cherished father, brother, uncle, and friend, who will be deeply missed by all who knew him.

Troy was the loving and proud father of Trevor, who he adored dearly. He was a devoted brother to Terri and Timm (Anna) McMaster. Beloved friend of Karen. A proud uncle, Troy leaves behind fond memories with his nieces and nephews: Ryan (Marley), Carlee (Mitch), Alyssa (Chris), Karsen (Lora) and Tiffany who grew up loving him as a father. He will be forever remembered as the beloved "best friend" of Tanner, the dog he lovingly rescued from the Alcona Humane Society.

Preceded in death by his father, Carl E. McMaster, mother, Faith I (née Kline) McMaster, and brother Todd McMaster, Troy is survived by extended family and a wide circle of friends who cherished his companionship and unfailing kindness.

Troy had a successful career as a Regional Manager, and his professional dedication inspired many. Though he enjoyed fishing and cheering on his favorite sports teams, his greatest joy came from spending quality time with his son, Trevor.

“ I will never forget the first time we met, Kohls Novi, I was pregnant with my youngest, that was almost 40 years ago. We became good friends and have had that ever since. Our texts/talks were not consistent, many times I sent, you didn't answer. I didn't care, I knew your read then all. Just me telling about my day. Etc.... It still doesn't feel real, like you're reading this now. I will miss my dear friend, until we meet again

“ My heart is broken. Troy was a wonderful father to my son Trevor. He has been in my life for over 40 years. Some very happy fun times. I have no idea how to navigate this life for Trevor now, but the lord will definitely help him. I know that Trevor had the best dad ever. May Troy rest in peace. I will make sure our son achieves the best life possible. Love you Troy until we meet again.

“ My heart is so heavy. Yesterday, My brother lost his Dad and I lost someone so dear to my heart. Troy, you filled my heart with so much love in so many important years of my life. My childhood is full of memories that were given to me by you. I grew up not longing for a dad who wasn't around because i had you. You gave me your family, who since then have always been my family and I can't imagine my life without them. I will never be able to see snoopy or scooby doo and not think of you. The boys and I love watching survivor together and I told them how we always watched it together. So many other things that remind me of you, Saturday morning cartoons (recess and pepper Ann to be specific oh and punkie Brewster) fishing, the fonze, titanic and sea world, nascar, St. Bernards, Gabe the babe (Gabe kapler) and countless tigers games. My love for baseball comes from you. Thank you for giving me Trevor and for being the best dad for him. Thank you for the love you gave me. I will always be your Tiffer Lou ☐ I love you. RIP Troy

“ My best friendyou will be missed more than ever. We spent so many days and nights growing together through life. We have had a lot of great memories and tons of laughs (whether at work or while we were hanging out.) You were and always will be someone that I looked up to. You showed me how to become a become a good leader and taught me so much throughout the years (and yes ... even how to fish). So many stories/memories that I will cherish and reminisce forever and ever. The times that we got to spent together are priceless! I'm so glad that we met all those years ago. You are a great friend, father, brother and mentor. Until we meet again buddy. Love you very much. Rest in peace friend.
